

Child and Family Team: An Interview with a Parent

Q: Who participated in this CFT?

A:

Q: Why was it significant to bring this large group together for a meeting?

A:

Q: Can you describe the CFT meeting for me?

A:

Q: You had case managers before for Matthew and you had treatment plans written before. Why do you think the CFT process worked?

A:

Q: I have known a lot of “groups” that have come together to develop plans before, but they were not always successful. What do you think were the elements of this process that made it so successful for you and Matthew?

A:

Q: In summary, what were the most important aspects of the CFT process verses just having Case Management services provided?
